

Imagine an organization so important that its CEO died for it!
And all of its original “board” followed Him into martyrdom.

Unlike any earthly organization, the church of Jesus Christ survives external attacks and internal conflict. It crosses national borders and endures the rise and fall of nations. Outliving cultures, civilizations and centuries, it remains the pillar and support of truth. This summer, survey the first churches and how they withstood persecutions and pressures.

May 21: The Church Jesus Built. Explore the purpose of the church, its importance to us and its function in the world.

Allan McNabb

May 28: Jerusalem—The First Church. The prototype of Christ’s organization on the earth faced huge challenges—explosive growth, leadership problems and a short life of only 40 years.

Tommy Peeler

June 4: Antioch—The Mission Church. This group of disciples had a world vision and talent to match it. Its quest has great implications for us.

Mark Broyles

June 11: Thessalonica—The Young Church. Exuberant and impetuous, this church received two letters from Paul, who guided them to deeper understanding of their purpose in God’s work.

Josh Creel

June 18: Philippi—The Joyful Church. These disciples received the highest praise given to any New Testament church. How did they do it?

Frederic Gray

June 25: Corinth—The Church on Fire. Enormous problems and internal strife rocked this church family. Yet Paul reassured them (and us) they remained children of God.

Marty Pickup

July 9: Churches of Galatia. The cosmopolitan churches - Jews and Gentiles merged radically different cultures into churches and created peaceful coexistence. How?

Luke Chandler

July 16: Colossae—The Culturally Conflicted Church. This church struggled with intellectual philosophies, centuries-old conflicts and new age religions, as we do today.

Tom Hamilton

July 23: Ephesus—The Church with Two Hearts. This church achieved great spiritual success. And then faltered. What happened?

Steve Diaz

July 30: Rome—The Capital Church. How does a church survive in the city of the Emperor-gods, when your message is that there is one God and Lord?

Colly Caldwell

August 6: The Churches of Asia. These congregations suffered turmoil and tribulation. Some coped, others compromised with their cultures. A few prospered under pressure.

Robert Harkrider

August 13: The Church in America in the 21st Century. What should Jesus’ church look like in our century, in our culture, with the challenges we face?

Ken Weliever

All lectures begin at 7:30 PM.
